Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

SAVE THE DATE!!! ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SALE!!!

This year, the annual Christmas Sale is scheduled for Saturday, November 24th. Since it will be held earlier than usual, we ask that you SAVE THE DATE now and start to think of ways in which you could help. We are encouraging everyone to pitch in order to ensure that this MAJOR fundraiser is a successful one!! We welcome involvement at any level :)

Suggestions are: baking, working at the sale, donating goods or money, providing gift vouchers for prizes and raffles, and of course, come out yourselves to support the event on November 24th.

We look forward to hearing any suggestions or additional ideas from parishioners that would make the day even more successful! Best regards, Trish and Debbie

THE BISHOP'S CORNER

My Dear Fellow-Catholics

On the 15th of September we remember Our Lady of Sorrows. This memorial reminded me that I wanted to share with you a prayer that I found on the Internet that has become my special prayer these days.

Father, I pray for victims of sexual abuse. I pray for healing. I pray for deep comfort. I pray that you will restore what has been stolen and broken. While you do not alter history, you reveal your love in the present and the future. What seems hopelessly shattered, in you can be redeemed. For the many who have been defiled in sexual abuse, show yourself to be loving and able – as you are willing – to give back life, and life abundant. Yes, there is great pain in this world. There is injustice. There is evil. I turn to you and cry out for help and healing. I cannot help but wonder why such horrible abuse happens. But help me to turn from “why?” and ask instead, “how?” How, now, will your perfect goodness and love find expression in the shadow of wickedness? Father, you are good and merciful and also all powerful. Yet you have risked giving humans the right to choose how we will live. Some choose evil. For those who are victims of other's vile deeds, I ask you for grace and healing. For those who have suffered, come to them tenderly and with overwhelming and powerful love. I join Jesus and borrow his words, “Be freed from your suffering...”

Mary, Our Lady of Sorrows, who was standing close by the cross of Jesus and shared his sufferings, grant that our Church, through her cleansing penance and conversion, may merit a share in Jesus' Resurrection. Amen. Bishop Wes

St. Theresa's Cathedral - NOTICE

Saturday morning service at the Cathedral is returning to its ordinary schedule.

9:00am - Holy Mass in Portuguese followed by the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Adoration

12:30pm - Benediction

Caritas House of Prayer –Quiet Wednesday schedule:

Recitation of the Rosary at 10:30 AM followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament until noon. All are invited to join us for evening prayer which will be at 5:45 PM. This would be a wonderful way to end your working day. All those 16 and older are invited to join us and parents with children are also welcome to join us.

NB: On the pink newsletter which listed the year's activities, there is an error. The October presentation of the “Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius” is on October 21st not the 19th. The times are the same. First presentation is next Sunday the 23rd from 2-4 PM and then repeated from 6:30 – 8:30 PM. All are invited but especially those who made the retreat

Lectio Divina is held at St. Theresa's Cathedral Hall on Monday evenings at 7PM. This is a wonderful way to prepare for the upcoming Sunday's liturgy.
