- Directed by John Duigan with cast Raul Julia and Richard Jordan, this film depicts the life of Saint Oscar Romero (15 August 1917 -24 March 1980) during the time that he was Archbishop of El Salvador. Pope Francis stated, "His ministry was distinguished by his particular attention to the most poor and marginalized." Romero was murdered while saying Mass on March 24, 1980. He was beatified on May 23, 2015.

This is a Peace and Social Justice Ministry Event and is Free for All to attend. Bring your popcorn and movie treats!!!
